

Eligible Donors

Regular full time and part time employees on the Cingular Wireless payroll (working at least 20 hours per week).

Eligible Institutions And Organizations

To qualify for the Cingular Wireless Matching Gift Program, institutions or organizations must be recognized by the Internal Revenue Code as tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organizations. The following are examples of organizations that are eligible for matching funds:

- Any public or private elementary or secondary school; any graduate, professional, two- or four-year college (including junior, community or technical) or university. The institution must be fully accredited.
- Arts/cultural organizations.
- Public television and public radio stations.
- Church affiliated outreach programs e.g.: Soup Kitchens/Childcare Services.
- Fundraising organizations for all of the above
- Other eligible organizations.

How Gifts Are Matched

Cingular Wireless will match gifts of $25 to $5,000 in the form of cash or securities on a dollar-for-dollar basis. (The value of securities will be that average of the high and low of the market the day the gift was given). Gifts must be the personal contribution of the participant from his or her own funds, either in cash or securities having a quoted market value. Contributions must have been made and not just pledged. The matching grant will be for general use of the designated not-for-profit organization, and will be made without restrictions. The maximum payout to any 1 institution from all donors is $15,000 per calendar year.
