

Eligibility

A. An individual is eligible to have gifts of his/her personal funds or securities matched under the Program if he/she is a permanent, regularly scheduled employee, a regular part-time employee or retired employee who was actively employed immediately before retirement.

B. A tax—exempt educational institution meets the Program's requirements if it is listed in the current edition of the Higher Education Directory published by Higher Education Publications, Inc.

C. The donor may make an unrestricted contribution or designate a purpose, except those defined as ineligible in the Program. The matching gift will be for the same eligible purpose designated by the donor.

Ineligible Contributions

Pledges to make a contribution in the future, payment of tuition and student fees, purchases of goods and services including tickets to athletic events, and payments of alumni dues are not eligible contributions. Contributions designated for scholarship funds are not eligible contributions unless the educational institution administers such funds.

Matching Gifts Program Marathon Oil Company Foundation

At Marathon, we understand that our reputation as a responsible corporate citizen is essential to our continued success.

By being responsive to the needs and interests of our employees, neighbors and community stakeholders, Marathon is able to provide sustainable benefits in the communities where we operate.

Marathon supplements employees' and retirees' gifts to colleges, universities and organizations through the Matching Gifts Program. When an employee or retiree makes a contribution of at least $50 in cash or securities to an accredited college or university, the Marathon Oil Company Foundation will contribute a dollar-for-dollar match. This one-for-one matching program will apply up to an aggregate of $10,000 in gifts from an individual contributor per calendar year. As implemented January 1st, 2003, retirees will have a cumulative, post-retirement maximum cap of $30,000 in matching gifts, which is subject to the $10,000 annual cap.
