When you make a contribution to a qualified education, adult basic literacy, financial literacy or arts & culture organization, The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. will match your gift dollar-for-dollar – up to $3,000 per year, per employee. This $3,000 annual cap includes your contribution to the Corporation’s Community Partners Employee Giving Campaign held each fall, which also matches your gift dollar-for-dollar.

Who is eligible?
All active employees of The McGraw-Hill Companies, or any of its subsidiaries, retired employees who are eligible for all retiree benefits, directors and retired directors. Participation by retirees is limited to up to three (3) years after the individual leaves the Corporation and is no longer an active employee or director.

The spouse of a deceased employee of the Corporation is eligible for a one-time gift match. For details contact the Matching Gift Program office.

Which institutions are eligible?
All institutions and organizations must be located in the United States or one of its possessions, and must also be recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as tax-exempt, and designated a public charity under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRS Code, or as an instrumentality of a state or local government as provided by Section 170(c)(1) of the Code.

Education and literacy
Degree-granting graduate and professional schools, universities, 4-year and 2-year colleges and technical institutes – public or private – will be considered if they are properly accredited by agencies approved by the U.S. Department of Education. Employees need not have attended the institution receiving the gift.

A tax-exempt education fund (e.g., United Negro College Fund, or a member of the Foundation for Independent Higher Education) is eligible if its sole purpose is raising money for its constituent member colleges which individually are eligible under the plan.

Adult basic literacy and financial literacy organizations will be considered if their sole purpose is the delivery or advancement of basic skills instruction in these areas, (e.g., Literacy Volunteers of America, Laubach Literacy Action, National Foundation for Teaching Economics, Junior Achievement, National Council on Economic Education – and their eligible affiliates).

Arts and culture
A wide range of arts and cultural organizations qualify (see Section 2 on the application page of this form). Recipient organizations must be open to and operated for the benefit of the general public. Membership payments and direct contributions qualify.

Terms of the program
The minimum contribution to an eligible institution that the Corporation will match is $25. The maximum total of an individual’s contribution that the Corporation will match each year is $3,000. The amount may by divided among eligible institutions or given to a single institution. (See also “What happens next?”.)

Gifts must be personal contributions – cash, or negotiable securities with an established market value determined by the closing price on the day the gift is made.

The Corporation will not match: bequests, in-kind contributions, gifts of eligible donors’ spouses not employed by the Corporation, payments in lieu of tuition, tickets or subscriptions; dues or gifts payable to national or local alumni groups that are not distributed to the affiliated educational institution, gifts to schools where admission is restricted because of race or creed; gifts intended to fulfill pledges, tithes or other religious-related financial commitments; other payments not received as gifts by an eligible institution.

How to apply
You can fill out this form following the instructions below or visit the Community Partners Web site at http://mhc.mcgraw-hill.com:.11111/cccc to register your request online.

Simply fill out Section 1 on the application page of this form and send the entire form with your contribution to the institution you select. The institution will certify your form by filling out Section 2 and will return the entire original form to the Corporation. To be eligible for matching, your gift must be acknowledged by the institution and the form received by the Corporation within 90 days of the date that the gift is made.
What the institution does

A responsible Financial Officer of the institution must fill out Section 2 and mail the entire original form to The McGraw-Hill Companies at the address noted in Section 2.

What happens next?

After verifying that your contribution qualifies for matching, the Corporation will send a check to the institution.

Eligible gifts are matched quarterly. If the institution returns your form to the Corporation by the 10th of the last month of the quarter, your gift will be matched in that quarter. If the form is received after that date, payment will be made at the end of the next quarter. Your yearly maximum (see “Terms of the Program” on previous page), however, is based on the calendar year in which your gifts are made.

The McGraw-Hill Companies Community Partners Matching Gift Program will send you an annual acknowledgment of gifts made on your behalf each calendar year.

The McGraw-Hill Companies reserves the right to suspend, amend or terminate this program at any time. The interpretation, application and administration shall be determined by the Corporation and its decisions will be final. Questions on the program should be directed to the Matching Gift Program office: phone: 1-877-877-2127 fax: 609-799-8019; e-mail: mcgraw-hill@easymatch.com.
