The Program

Rohm and Haas Company values the time you spend volunteering in the community and the impact your individual contribution makes.

Established in 1987, Dollars for Doers applauds your community service activities by issuing grants - ranging from $150 to $500 - in your name to your favorite non-profit organization.

Any employee who volunteers a minimum of ten hours in any given year with a single organization is eligible for a grant. Whether you volunteer to combat homelessness or illiteracy, to support youth development through athletics or education, or to assist individuals through crisis or illness, your work can earn a Dollars for Doers grant for your organization(s).

How grant awards are determined

Grant awards are determined by the number of hours per year you volunteer and the number of years you've been active with your organization(s).

Grants range from $150 to $500, depending on the length of service and number of hours volunteered each year.

Employees may earn up to $1,000 in collective grants (with a maximum of $500 to any one organization) for the organizations where they volunteer each calendar year. Just one application per year per organization can be made.

A specific organization may earn up to $1,000 in grants each year through multiple volunteers.
