

Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. Guidelines

Employees who make monetary contributions to arts and cultural organizations, schools and universities may have up to $500 of their donation matched each year.

Eligible Organizations:

Educational Institutions

- Qualifying public or private colleges, universities or graduate schools; two-year junior or community colleges located in the United States that are accredited by a recognized national or regional accrediting agency and approved by the Internal Revenue Service as tax-exempt institutions to which contributions are deductible for federal income tax purposes.
- Consortia that distribute the contributed funds to their member colleges (e.g., The United Negro College Fund).
- Qualifying public and private elementary and secondary schools (K through 12th grade) that are located in the United States and are properly accredited and approved by the IRS as tax-exempt institutions to which contributions are deductible for federal income tax purposes. Private schools must provide proof of accreditation by a recognized accrediting agency.

Arts & Culture Organizations

- Qualifying nonprofit arts and culture organizations whose primary focus is on activities that are open to and operated for the benefit of the general public, located in the United States, and recognized as tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Examples include public radio and television, performing arts companies, museums, public libraries, art galleries, theaters, dance and music groups, planetariums, zoos and historical societies and restorations open to the public.

Kristina Christy | Corporate Contributions | Corporate
Responsibility | Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.

One CNN Center | 11th floor North | Atlanta, GA 30303 | 404-878-1073

Kristina.Christy@turner.com

TBS Inc. International
TBS Superstation
Turner Classic Movies
Turner Network Television
Turner South
Turner Sports, Inc.